

Ordering product or service steps

First thing after accessing by the user details:

```
graph TD; A[Will have 2 option for payments (E payment and COD) and in case of COD there will be additional charge] --> B[After completing the payment. User will see appreciation page with booking details and reference. And expected delivery date]; C[After choosing X provider. User will enter the provider page and details. And will be able to see the profile. What are the service is including , prices , Packages. And also will be able to see the available dates and time frame slots and book from there.] --> D[After making the booking and confirm it. User will be directed to the payment page to make the E payment (ONLY) and confirm it.]; D --> E[After completing the payment. User will see appreciation page with booking details and reference. To edit and change the booking will be by sending request 1 day minimum to our customer care to see the possibility. And the cancelation too];
```

Will have 2 option for payments (E payment and COD) and in case of COD there will be additional charge

After completing the payment. User will see appreciation page with booking details and reference. And expected delivery date

After choosing X provider. User will enter the provider page and details. And will be able to see the profile. What are the service is including , prices , Packages.

And also will be able to see the available dates and time frame slots and book from there.

After making the booking and confirm it. User will be directed to the payment page to make the E payment (ONLY) and confirm it.

After completing the payment. User will see appreciation page with booking details and reference. To edit and change the booking will be by sending request 1 day minimum to our customer care to see the possibility. And the cancelation too